delta state college; a four year institution rising from the mississippi delta; an opportunity for exposure, experiment, experience, thus education. not state or ole miss, but quite an individual place; sometimes too quiet on weekends yet offering quite a lot to students who seek. a mass of individuals in tweeds, corduroy, knits and fake fur, bluejeans, sweatshirts and bellbottoms. commuters, dorm residents and apartment dwellers; enjoying movies, dances, night spots and a pecan orchard near ruleville. a variety of moods — firelight pep rallies, biology labs and shakespeare classes, and a smoke-filled, crowded student center. a beautiful setting around an oak-lined quadrangle, new and remodeled classrooms providing a learning environment. usually beautiful weather, a number of rainy fridays and an occasional snow; but that never keeps us out of class. we have fine traditions and an excellent administration for a young college soon to be a university. as students we do not violently protest war, women's rules or student power; although we are not apathetic. we respect authority, but abhor "red tape." change is a factor in our lives. delta state is now something more than just the "friendliest school in dixie;" computerized, yes, but not impersonalized by a longshot. guidance and real interest from the faculty. provide new courses in black history and three-dimensional design, graduate degrees and a chance to play in the memorial stadium. we will always need: later hours, student aid, parking places, cultural events, better food, pop concerts and a bigger budget for the broom. we recognize needs and strive to meet them. this is a part of education as vital as byron or dewey, pasteur or keats. we have learned a lot here. a year too quickly gone but still affecting our lives.

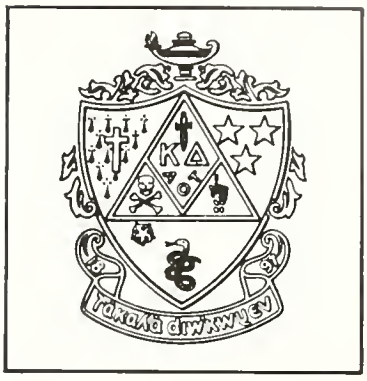
KAPPA DELTA SORORITY

GAMMA PSI CHAPTER



kappa delta's don't wear off as the day wears on, and they don't even try harder. kappa delta came to delta state campus in the form of gamma psi chapter in 1962. theirs is excellence in scholarship and gracious living. kappa delta is a composite of fun, fellowship and sisterly love. margie gazelle, judy carpenter, and daty sanders are all cheerleaders. five KD's are top ten beauties, and four are campus favorites. kappa delta's are listed in who's who, best dressed and honoraries. first place in homecoming display and second place in song fest are more KD honors. gamma psi's social events include a mother-daughter tea, founder's day banquet, white rose formal, and cowboy party. kappa delta's collect food at thanksgiving, sponsor a christmas family, and help with the easter seal drive. KD's are united by common bonds of loyalty and sisterhood, and an understanding of those within their circle by striving "for that which is honorable, beautiful and highest."
